

14th International Biotechnology Symposium and Exhibition
Biotechnology for the Sustainability of Human Society

14-18 September 2010 | Palacongressi, Rimini, Italy

SUBMIT ABSTRACTS BY 1 MARCH 2010

Download the second circular at www.ibs2010.org

Preliminary programme information is now available for the 14th International Biotechnology Symposium and Exhibition [www.ibs2010.org] which takes place 14-18 September 2010 in Rimini, Italy, organised by the Alma Mater Studiorum-University of Bologna.

Please note the following important deadlines:

- Oral and Poster Abstract Submission: 1 March 2010
 - Request for Rooms for Project Meetings: 26 February 2010
 - Early Registration: 31 May 2010
-

CONFERENCE SESSIONS

Visit the programme pages at www.ibs2010.org for information on chairs, speakers and the topics to be covered within each session

- Session 1: Systems Biology for Biotechnological Innovation (Jointly with SBH)
- Session 2: Medical and Pharmaceutical Biotechnology
- Session 3: Animal Biotechnology
- Session 4: Industrial Biotechnology (Jointly with ESEB)
- Session 5: Biotechnology for Bioenergy
- Session 6: Food Biotechnology
- Session 7: Plant Biotechnology
- Session 8: Forest Biotechnology
- Session 9: Environmental Biotechnology (Jointly with ISEB)
- Session 10: Contribution of Chemistry to Develop a Biotechnology-based Economy
- Round Table 1: International Research Policies
- Round Table 2: Biosafety, Food Security and Bioeconomy

First Plenary Lecture: Aaron Ciechanover, Israel (Nobel Laureate)

Second Plenary Lecture: Sang Yup Lee, Republic of Korea

Final Plenary Section: Going From Bench to Society: How to make it happen

For full information visit www.ibs2010.org

THE ORGANIZERS

Convenor: Alma Mater Studiorum-University of Bologna

Organizer: Adria Congrex, IBS2010 Secretariat, Via Sassonia, 30, 47900 Rimini (RN) - Italy
Tel: +39.0541.305896 | Fax: +39.0541.305842 | Email: ibs2010@adriacongrex.it

Co-organizer: Elsevier

For details of the organizing committees please visit www.ibs2010.org